January General Meeting Notes

Ginevra: Archery going well, nothing to report. Still trying to decide if hosting archery clinic on the 29th.

Speranza: A request has been made to put together a regional war practice, some time in May or June. Looking at possibly using Mandt Center. Possible crisis in the sense that most events that have melee have been cancelled. Will discuss it at next meeting.

Aesa: nothing to report, all is well.

Niklaus: Looking to step down as Fencing Marshal. Will post on the email list and facebook that replacement is being sought. Will no longer be autocrating at WW.

Cadmaus: All quiet on the Heraldry front;

Their Excellencies: Sad about cancelling Moot. Will be sending a "Court Report" over the weekend.

Cos: Signet land is going well, all is quiet.

Justin: No word from University about updated COVID policies; UW might have a rate change with rental of space.

Seneschal term is up in March. Will be stepping down in February so that new Seneschal can take over with an overlap present

If someone is releasing an old name and registering a new name, there is a Kingdom fund that will cover these expenses.

Samii: Website has been updated to reflect current practices. Will be exploring alternative site hosts to see about saving a few dollars.

Robert: Nothing to report; no major policy changes;

February General Meeting Notes

Their Excellencies: We do not have an event bid to present, but we are thinking about May Day. Possible locations are The Crucible, or do we want a Park.

Niklaus: Patrick expressed interest in becoming the Rapier Marshal, however, RL has intruded, and will not be able to take it on. Not much activity has been happening, given the COVID Pause.

Ginevra: Archery is restarting, we have about 10 archers at the Pavilion. Currently, will be staying at the Pavilion. No official word about remaining at Hope Rod Gun Club, although Ginevra continues membership.

Aesa: Nothing to report, all is quiet on Exchequer Land

Calamus: Nothing to report on Acceptance>Returns for Jara. Will be stepping down as baronial herald due to multiple commitments.
