FROM THEIR EXCELLENCIES

---

Greetings,

As our time on the High Seats comes to a close, we have been thinking back on our tenure. A few memories stand out. For those who attended the May Day Moot in 2011, it may be shocking that we have fond memories of that frigid day. What we remember so well is the ad hoc Jararvellir Engineering Corps that worked diligently to block the wind, allow the fire to gain some traction and keep many of us warm. It was still a frightfully cold day, but we all had a good time. We also remember well the large demo held that same year, in James Madison Park. The period pavilions, so many people dressed in finery, the flash of armor in the sun, the general public mesmerized by the fighting and all of the A&S projects, was magical.

With regard to the Baronial transition, Their Majesties had a most difficult decision indeed, being presented with three sets of candidates who would serve the Barony well. We were happy to know that no matter who Their Majesties selected, Jararvellir would prosper. We leave you in the most capable hands of Robert the Stout. He will do well by this Barony, and please treat him as well as you treated us. We will make the transition at Flesh Wound in just a few short weeks, and we hope to see many of you there as we celebrate Robert's investiture.

The weekend before Flesh Wound, we will have our final Baronial Court at Yule Moot. Aoife and Eirik have coordinated a fun schedule of events, including lots of dance. Many events do not feature dance, and trust us that dancing is great fun! It is almost impossible not to smile, and one certainly does not feel the cold, while dancing. We are happy to have a chance to dance the day away.

We also wish to thank the many people who have helped lighten our physical load by assisting in unloading our car, setting up and tearing down our presence, and caring for our children. While we did not have an official chamberlain, Cassandra and Kaydian seem to have adopted us in this capacity and for this, words are not sufficient to explain our gratitude.

One of the unique and, honestly, sometimes overwhelming aspects of this job is to serve as a reflector, or lens, for the great deeds of our people. We have been very fortunate indeed to reflect much joy, beauty and kinship that make this Barony wonderful. The enthusiasm, energy, and sense of humor of our people are truly amazing. Jararvellir is a special place, and we thank all of you for being a part of it.

As Raito says – so long, and thanks for all the fish.

In service,

RAITO AND AESA

fish TALES

Welcome fishy~folk of our fair barony to this month's Fish Tales. This will be a space where once or twice a month we will highlight a member of our barony with a few questions posed to them by the fair Lady Demona di Rosa as a bit of a get to know one another! Also, in the interest of a more visual cue than recognizing someone's name on any of our various electronic communications we will be sharing a portrait and, if registered, their arms in our society.

Robert the Stout

SCA name: Robert the Stout

Mundane name: Rob Trefz

How did you find the SCA?

The gaming group I played with in college hung out at the same restaurant that Nordskogan had social practice.

Why did you join the SCA?

For the chance to make stuff, and I love costuming.

Please tell us about your persona if you have one? What about previous or alternate ones?

Robert the Stout is the younger son of a Scottish lord. Officially, Robert is travelling the continent to help raise troops for his father, but really he is happy to be out of Scotland.

What groups and kingdoms have you belonged to?

Middle, Northshield. I played a little bit in Nordskogan, but I didn't really become active until I moved back to Jara.

What is your latest project?

I'm finishing an Elizabethan men's shirt (hand-sewn linen, with blackwork I traded beer and mead for). Shortly I'm going to start redacting a 17th century mead recipe.

Biggest success and failure?

Metal-work is my biggest failure. I just can't wrap my mind around it. Success is much harder to say. I still have a lot to learn about the various things I do.

Who are your inspirations?

Mistress Eithni, Haus Von Kulmbach, Sir Duncan

What's your favorite event? Do you prefer indoor or outdoor?

The first War Camp. The event was stick-jock paradise. 2 full days of fighting, with grilled meat for feast. I'm pretty evenly split between indoor and outdoor events. Each have their own advantages and weaknesses.

Do you go to court and what attracts you to it?

Yes, if I have time. I like seeing everyone dress up, and hanging out with people.

Current and past officer positions?

I'm currently the deputy Chronicler. I have been MOAS, and Seneschal.

What have you been interested in recently?

Making more period beers and meads. Sausage making.

Aspirations and goals?

Improve my prowess. Make both my hard kit and soft kit more period-appropriate.

What keeps you going in the SCA?

The people, and the fighting.

Fighting/A&S Preference/interests?

I'm something of a jack of all trades. I really enjoy heavy fighting, and I've dabbled in a lot of A&S items over the years. Right now my A&S focus is more on sewing and brewing/vintning.

Have you ever attended a War? if so which ones?

Yes. Pennsic and Lilies.

Thank you Robert for taking some time to answer a few questions that both newer and long-standing fellow fishy-folk may know and recognize you better when out and about the kingdom!

Join us again next month where we will highlight another member to get to know just a little better!

~Lady Demona di Rosa

THROWN WEAPONS SCHEDULE

Thrown Weapons will be on hiatus for the next few months and no schedule posted. Please keep an eye out on the baronial e-list should a marshal organize and announce a practice in the near future.

TOUSSAINT DE CALUÛÉ

JARARVELLIR NEEDLEARTS

Did you know that we have a sewing/embroidery group that meets every single (almost) week of the year in Jara on Tuesday evenings? We're very flexible about what people can work on in our group - we focus generally on embroidery but you will commonly see people working on garb, knitting, spinning, and general sewing and we're happy to help you with any of these (but if you want something specific you may want to check with me in advance so I can make sure to match up a skilled person in the craft of your choice up with you). None of us are costuming experts but we can assist with the basics and a bit more.

Feel free to come to a single meeting, occasionally, or all.

We're a pretty small group - usually we average 4-6 people a week with a few more showing up for our Dobra Tea House nights.

We meet in homes 3-4 (mostly on the east side) weeks out of the month, and meet at the Dobra Tea House on State the first Tuesday of every month. To find out specifics join our mailing list @

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/jaraneedlearts/>

EUROPEAN DANCE PRACTICE

Where: The site is Capitol Lakes Retirement Center, 333 W. Main St. (Two blocks off the capitol square. Parking on the street is free on Sundays and after 6PM.) The room is the exercise studio that is part of their Aquatic & Wellness Center. (Ask for directions to the exercise studio at the front desk. If they give you directions to the Wellness center, turn around if you're facing the locked door and go to the first room on the right.)

When: The dates and times will be the first and third Sundays of a month. For other times please watch the baronial e-list and Facebook page.

There will be a roster waiver set up for everyone to sign when they show up. Please sign in.

Please, no street shoes in the room. Either bring a pair of shoes specifically for dancing or plan on dancing in socks or bare feet. There are cubby holes for shoes across from the room.)

I have promised that we'll even open it up to the residents (it's a retirement living facility) and that we'll do a couple of demos for them when we get some dances worked out.

If you have questions, call me at 608.213.1107

Hope to see you there!

ELASHAVA BAS RIVA (JUSTSHAVA®), OL
